

Welcome: If you are visiting with us today, we welcome you. We want you to feel at home. Please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the collection plate during worship. If you have children under two, we have a nursery upstairs; and, for those from age two to five, a kids' worship time downstairs during the sermon.

Morning Sermon: Yoked with an Unbeliever (1 Cor. 7:12-16)

One of the most difficult situations in life is to be married to someone who is not a believer in Jesus Christ. Paul and Peter give advice to those who live in a spiritually divided marriage. Remember the goal: "Let's both get to heaven."

Evening Lesson: Doing It the Hard Way (Genesis 39) Scott McFarland

Jesus taught that suffering would be a part of the Christian life. As we look at Joseph's story, we will see how Joseph encourages us to take the hard road and do the right thing.

Next Sunday: Life's Gray Areas (1 Cor. 8:4-8)

How do you make decisions when the Bible does not explicitly state the answers? Paul brings us back to the principles of love and liberty.

*I want to thank everyone for their prayers, cards and beautiful flowers. They are appreciated so very much.
Love to all, Sue Shaffer*

I'd like to thank everyone here for your concern and support, and most of all for your prayers, during my mother's recent illness and passing. Only prayer could have made that as easy and quick as it was. It's such a blessing to be a part of such a loving and caring family as you all are.

With love and appreciation, Lynn Gardner

Get to Know the Intern: We'd like to encourage everyone to take some time to get to know Scott McFarland, our summer intern. Consider having him over to dinner, to play games, watch a movie, or just hang out.

Leland Point Follow-up: As a follow-up to Leland Point, we're offering a Children's Bible Story Time (6:00 – 6:45) and adult Bible study (7:00 – 7:45) in the party room at Subway near Leland Monday evenings through August 3. If you can come and help keep the kids focused any of those evenings, please let Jeffrey know. There will be a Bible story, singing, and some type of craft, skit, or puppet show, so help is needed keeping the kids organized during that time. Pick a week or two, and come give us a hand, please!

Camp Concern: It's time to get those registration forms into Lynn Gardner for your child's space to be guaranteed at church camp. Camp sessions begin this week. July 3-5 College weekend (ages 19-22). July 5-11 Senior Week. (ages 15-18). July 12-18 Secondary Week (ages 13-14). July 19-25 Intermediate week (ages 11-12). July 19-25 Junior Week (ages 8-10). Camp space is limited so if you have a child ages 8-18, please get your child signed up soon. Camp is a valuable experience for all who attend. visit online at www.campconcern.org

Idlewild Park: Church of Christ Day at Idlewild Park is coming up again. It will be held Saturday, September 5. Prices are $16 for ages 3 to 54; $14.50 for ages 55+; children two and under are free. Please let Vickie know if you'd like to attend so she knows how many tickets to get. (These prices are much less than at the gate.) If you haven't been to Idlewild, it's a wonderful park for small children particularly, and you'll have a great time! This is also a wonderful opportunity to see people from other congregations that you don't get to see too often and renew old friendships.

Ladies Class: Tuesday evening at 8pm at Sarah Sindorf's, a ladies bible study will be blessing those in attendance.
